

Jan 8 BOSCAWEN. 1911

The funeral of Harry A. Dennison was held at the church Tuesday at 12 m. Mr. Dennison has been sick with tuberculosis for some time and since coming from Rye Beach several weeks ago was confined to his bed until the end came Saturday morning. Mr. Dennison is survived by his wife who was Miss Grace Gilman of Canterbury. His father, mother and brother, together with several uncles, aunts and cousins are also left to mourn. He was 40 years old last April.

Mr. Dennison had been for five years manager of The Erickson in Boston. He was a well known hotel man and leaves a host of friends who join in extending sympathy to the bereaved relatives. At Rye Beach he was proprietor of The Marden. He had also been engaged in the hotel business in Florida. 1911
